After that date a cancellation received before 3 November 2022 (Part I only; Part I and II) | 12 January 2023 (Part II only) 25 % of the registration fee will be reimbursed, less 30 € net service charge. No refund thereafter. All refunds will be settled after the course. Substitution is possible.

Data use and storage

The personal data you provide will only be used by CSi Hamburg GmbH to fulfil the contract and will be handled in accordance with the provisions of the German Data Protection Regulation (DSGVO). For the duration of the contractual relationship, the service provider may store and use your personal data in compliance with the applicable data protection regulations. The collection, storage and processing of your personal data is necessary for your registration for the offer. Your data will be used exclusively for the purpose of organising and conducting the event. Your data will only be passed on to third parties if they are directly involved in the running of the event and if the organisational progress makes this necessary (organiser). The legislative body requires to obtain your active consent. Within the registration process, you will be asked to give your consent for your surname, first name and institution/company to be stored and shown in the list of participants. You will receive information about the data we have stored about you without having to give a reason and you can have this data blocked, corrected or deleted at any time. You can also revoke your consent to the use of your data at any time without giving reasons. Please send your written revocation, stating in detail which data records are to be deleted, to: CSi Hamburg GmbH, Goernestraße 30, 20249 Hamburg or info@csihamburg.de.

The course will take place via an online meeting platform (Microsoft Teams). Please note that this platform belong to a company based in the United States of America. Your data will be passed on to the service provider for use, during the event of performance. Due to a possible location in the United States of America, the same data protection regulations as in Germany do not apply.

Liability

CSi Hamburg GmbH acts as an intermediary and is liable within the scope of the duty of care of a prudent businessman according to the legal provisions. Liability - regardless of the legal grounds - is limited to intent and gross negligence. The liability of commissioned third parties remains unaffected. No claims for damages can be asserted against the organiser and host if the implementation of the webinar or parts thereof are made difficult or impossible by unforeseen political or economic events or by force majeure. This also applies to programme changes due to cancellations by speakers or similar. You acknowledge that there is no claim for damages against the organiser if the implementation of the event is made more difficult or prevented by fire, force majeure, security risks, enemies of the state, war or riot, strikes, terrorist acts, sovereign measures, official orders, health crises, postponement or cancellation of the event or for other reasons for which the organiser is not responsible, or if the non-appearance of speakers or other reasons make programme changes necessary. The organiser is not liable for any costs, damages or expenses that registered persons may incur as a result of the postponement or cancellation of the event. The organiser declines all responsibility for property damage and personal injury of any kind that may arise in connection with the event. By registering, participants acknowledge this reservation.
